- Title: Gender and Climate: Building Capacity for Effective Advocacy
- Date: 27 February 2025
- Time: 09:00-13:00 CET
- Venue: Online (Zoom)
- Registration link: Women in Climate Webinar: Registration Form

Save the Date: "Gender and Climate: Building Capacity for Effective Advocacy" – Thursday, 27 February 2025

Join us for an inspiring webinar where we will explore the critical role of gender in shaping EU climate policies and how we can create a more inclusive and sustainable future for all. This event is part of the Women in Climate project, led by the European Women's Lobby (EWL), which brings together seven feminist organisations from across the EU to ensure that gender equality is at the heart of climate action. Each of them will organise local events to spark community discussions and collect insights that will translate into policy recommendations at the EU level.

Event Highlights:

- Keynote Address: Gender and Climate – The EU Perspective
Understand the importance of gender integration in climate policies and gain insights into the current and future directions of gender and climate in Europe.
- Panel Discussion: Incorporating Gender in Climate Policies with an Intersectional Approach
Learn from experts how different identities (e.g., race, age, disability) intersect with gender and discover strategies for inclusive policymaking.
- Interactive Workshop: Developing Effective Advocacy Strategies
Share practical tips on effective advocacy strategies, including incorporating intersectional factors into advocacy efforts.
- Case Studies: Successful Gender-Climate Initiatives
Discover successful initiatives from across Europe and how they integrate intersectionality into climate action.
- Open Forum: Participant Insights and Q&A
